DEFENDANTS HENNESSEE GROUP LLC, ELIZABETH LEE HENNESSEE AND CHARLES J. GRADANTE'S MOTION FOR A PRE-MOTION CONFERENCE

Pursuant to Section (f) of the Court's Order on Pretrial Deadlines, defendants Hennessee Group LLC ("Hennessee"), Elizabeth Lee Hennessee and Charles J. Gradante (collectively the "Individual Defendants") hereby request a telephonic pre-motion conference in connection with the filing of Defendants' proposed motions to dismiss, which will be based on the following grounds.

First, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(2), Defendants contend that this Court lacks personal jurisdiction over Defendants because, among other reasons, the proposed representative for the putative Hennessee Subclass is a limited partnership organized under the laws of North Carolina with registered offices located in Chapel Hill, North Carolina and therefore cannot invoke Connecticut's long-arm statute to sue Defendants, a foreign company and foreign residents, in Connecticut.

Second, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6), the Individual Defendants contend that all claims against them fail as a matter of law principally because the allegations are insufficient under applicable law.

Third, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6), the Individual Defendants contend that the Connecticut Unfair Trade Practices claim fails as a matter of law principally because New York law applies and alternatively the Unfair Trade Practices Act does not apply to securities transactions.

Fourth, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6), Defendants contend that the breach of fiduciary duty and negligence claims fail as a matter of law principally because the allegations are insufficient under applicable law.

Fifth, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6), Hennessee contends that the breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing claim fails as a matter of law principally because the allegations are insufficient under applicable law.

Sixth, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6), Defendants contend that certain claims fail as a matter of law as they are barred by the applicable statutes of limitation.

For each of the above-stated reasons, Defendants respectfully request that this Court grant the Motion for a Pre-Motion Conference.
